MERGER FIGHT STILL REMAINS UNSETTLED

Cotton Crop Shortage Makes The Market Jump

OCTOBER COTTON HAS RAPID RISE

Private Estimate From Memphis Is Given As The Cause

SOUTHERN STAPLE BOUGHT QUICKLY

New Orleans Reports Steady Opening With Good Gain

(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Sept. 10—Within the first half hour of trading today October cotton advanced ninety points to 29.50 or approximately five dollars a bale over Saturdays figure at closing. The jump was attributed to crop estimates given out by Memphis authorities estimating the crop at a much lower figure than the recent government figure showed.
The yield estimate was placed at 10,250,000 bales or more than half a million bales less than the government estimate.
First prices were lower but gradually increased as southern offerings were quickly absorbed.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 10—The cotton market showed as much strength as ever today after an easy opening with a new high level set for October cotton rose nearly a hundred points, or five dollars a bale, advancing to 27.78. A private crop estimate was responsible for the rapid advance.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10—The total world supply of cotton on August 1 was placed at 27,560,000 bales as compared with 29,200,000 for August 1, 1922.

Ex-Soldier Asks Prayers For Self

A striking evidence of the effects of the Ham-Ramsay revival meeting now in progress at the tent on Fourth Avenue, South came to the attention of the some 15 members of the business men's prayer meeting at the Y. M. C. A. this morning, when a young ex-soldier, dressed in his overalls, stopped at the prayer meeting on his way to the Louisville and Nashville shops, and told the men present he desired their prayers for himself and his family. The former soldier explained that while in the world war, he had drifted away from his religious teachings, and desired a return to the enjoyment of Christianity.
The men of the prayer meeting agreed to render the young man every assistance possible.

Negro Boy Suffers A Severed Foot

A fifteen year old negro boy, giving his name as Ellis Baraby, lost his right foot late Saturday night, so witnesses say, while he was crawling from under a freight car in the Louisville and Nashville switch yards here. The boy had alighted from a train about a quarter of a mile below the Louisville and Nashville yard office. He went at once under the car that later crushed his foot, and had all but made his escape when a switch engine started the car forward along with other cars attached to it. The right foot seems to have moved as rapidly as the left, consequently it was cut completely off at the ankle and left lying beside the tracks. Train men first carried the negro to a small office, and later with his severed foot he was taken by the ambulance to the Cottage Home Infirmary. At last accounts the boy was doing well and talked freely. He said he was from Sandy Point, Texas, but that he was born in Huntsville, Texas. He said he had no relatives that he knew of, but that a white family, a Mr. and Mrs. Romey Duke, of Sandy Point, Texas reared him.

GLORIA GOULD IS SOON TO WED

Miss Gloria Gould

Miss Gloria Gould, youngest daughter of the late George Jay and Mrs. George Jay Gould, of New York, and granddaughter of the late Jay Gould, is to be married September 18 to Henry A. Bishop, Jr., of Bridgeport, Conn. Owing to the recent deaths of her parents the ceremony will be witnessed only by a few friends and relatives.

MAN STANDS OFF SCORE OF POLICE

MELVILLE, Ill., Sept. 10—Harry Keppler, 27, who held the local police at bay after having shot his wife and wounded his mother-in-law surrendered to the local authorities this afternoon after his supply of ammunition became exhausted. The police entered the house and found Keppler hiding behind the kitchen stove.
He was brought to the St. Clair county jail uninjured.

MELVILLE, Ill., Sept. 10—Harry Keppler today shot his wife and mother-in-law when a score of policemen surrounded his house he opened fire on them. The local police were forced to appeal to St. Louis officials for aid.

Keppler is barricaded in his home and apparently has an ample supply of ammunition. The police are hiding behind trees and other places of concealment and when ever one steps from his place of concealment Keppler opens fire.

Keppler's mother-in-law, a Mrs. Hall, ran from the house with a bullet wound in her abdomen and is reported to be in a serious condition at the local hospital here.

The body of Mrs. Keppler is lying in the front yard and the police have been unable to reach it and remove it owing to the fire from the barricaded man.

The house is located near the public square and hundreds of persons have gathered several blocks from the house to watch the battle.

Walton To Stop Klan Parade

(Associated Press.)
OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 10—Governor Walton of Oklahoma today ordered the sheriff of Stevens county to swear in extra deputies in order to prevent a demonstration of the Ku Klux Klan to be held tonight at Duncan. Governor Walton stated that he would use the national guard should the sheriffs forces prove to be insufficient to block the parade.

COTTON MARKET

40 LEAF WORMS ON ONE COTTON STALK

A knee high cotton plant, seen on the streets in the hands of J. L. Echols had forty odd leaf worms upon it late Saturday. The worms seemed unembarrassed in the busy marts of trade and kept at their work of destruction as if nothing unusual was going on. The cotton plant, Mr. Echols had was knee high only if its roots were measured in with the rest of the plant.

Only one boll would have matured had the plant been allowed to grow. The leaf worm appears on the streets also near the Southern railroad and he crossed the Danville road on his way from patch to patch undisturbed by traffic.

There seems to be no doubt but that the pest has made his third or fourth hatching, and that despite all poisons used is able to continue the fight against a big crop of cotton.

SON GIBSON IS KILLED MONDAY

Son Gibson, was killed late Monday afternoon on Chestnut street. George Colbert, another negro, was arrested a short time later by Assistant Chief of Police Bell and Patrolman Thompson and placed in the county jail. The killing was said to have followed a family quarrel.

Keller Asked To Resign

Montgomery State highway engineer W. S. Keller was this afternoon exonerated of charges brought against him by highway commissioner McDonald, who sought his removal from office. The State highway commission in special session to investigate the charges voted dismissal of McDonald's charges by a vote of 9 to 1.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Sept. 10—A resolution asking for the resignation of W. S. Keller chief engineer of the State Highway Commission was introduced in the special session this morning. Charges were brought that the highway engineers had let contracts to subordinates.

JEW IS SUBJECT OF EVANGELIST HAM

Only Race Which Has Not Declined With The Centuries

ANOTHER LARGE CROWD PRESENT

Big Revival Tent Well Filled To Hear The Sunday Sermon

Announcements
No services on Monday. Tuesday morning the subject is "The Resurrection of Jesus." At 7:30 p. m. Mr. Ham will speak on the interesting subject "The Trial of Jesus from a Legal Standpoint." The Bar Association is invited to attend and sit as a jury. Services for young ladies at 5 p. m. Leave your babies at the Y. M. C. A. nursery.
Mr. Ham was greeted by immense crowds both at 3 and at 7:30 p. m. Sunday. The music is probably the best ever heard in the "Twin Cities." At 3 the subject was "The constructive side of the present day world movement" or "The Jew, the miracle of history." At 7:30 Mr. Ham spoke on "Sowing and Reaping."

In his introductory remarks the evangelist said he would not try to reconcile the fact that people acting in direct opposition to God carried out God's will. God's providence is managing all things yet the devil is permitted to use men capable of being used by God and the Devil. Satan proposed to man that if he disobeyed God he'd become God and man has been trying to subdue the earth under this promise.

The Jews are the most ancient and yet most modern people on the earth today. They are the only race that has not declined with the centuries. They have remained in the forefront since the days of Abraham. They are the purest blooded and most thrifty race in the world. Their death rate is just half that of others. They have figured prominently in the world. There has not been a Gentile court since Abraham in which a Jew did not have a prominent place. Recall Daniel in Babylon, Joseph in Egypt and Disraeli in England. Why is this? When Napoleon asked the Archbishop of Milan for the briefest possible argument for revealed religion, he appointed a Jew. History failed utterly to account for the Jew. As the race the Jew is God's elect. God called him to a special mission and he is immortal until that mission is accomplished. He is the miracle of history. He was in South America 100 years before the Pilgrims landed on our shores. The first white child born in Georgia was a Jew. Promissory notes, checks, financial letters, the stock exchange are all Jewish institutions. He controls the world's markets, sugar, shoes, leather, clothing, news, our imports, precious metals, and our international banking system and other things.

Why is this? The whole world was in idolatry before Abraham. God appeared to him and promised that of his seed no man can number. No one can take a census of the Jews. It has been attempted in this country but has never been done.

Four Fold Mission Of The Jews
1. To teach the world monotheism. "Hear, O Israel, The Lord our God is one God." The Jews have never fallen into idolatry since the Babylonish captivity. All the people of the world today who worship one God were taught it by the Jews. Their work is not yet complete.

2. To show the world the beauty and blessedness of obeying and serving this great God. When Israel disobeyed, however, world-powers like Babylon, Medo-Persia and Rome were permitted to afflict her.

3. To write, preserve and transmit the inspired Word of God. The writers of the Bible were all Jews. Rom. 3:1, "What advantage hath the Jew?"

DESTROYERS CAST ON PACIFIC COAST

Impenetrable Fog Is Cause Of The Sea Toll

MANY HEROIC ACTS REPORTED

Tuscaloosa Man Was In Command Of The Fuller

(Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 10—The theory was expressed today that a tidal wave or other sediment disturbance from the Japanese earthquake caused the disaster off the Pacific coast.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Sept. 10—Survivors of the seven American destroyers that grounded and wrecked off the California coast arrived here today on a special train. The injured were taken to hospitals.

TUSCALOOSA, Ala., Sept. 10—Lieut.-Commander Walter G. Feed was in command of the destroyer Fuller which landed high in the rocks in the naval disaster off the Pacific coast. No word has been received here by his parents as to his safety or danger.

SANTA BARBARA, Cal., Sept. 10—Seven United States navy destroyers and the Pacific mail liner Cuba were wrecked Saturday morning and night, the navy vessels crashing on the rocks in a dense fog off Arguello light, 75 miles north of Santa Barbara and the passenger steamer on a reef off the southeast end of San Miguel island, 35 miles from this port.

Twenty-five enlisted men of the destroyers lost their lives in the naval disaster and all the destroyers were reported as total losses.

The liner 'Cuba was reported to have sunk during the night, but all passengers and members of her crew either were landed at Los Angeles by the destroyer Reno or are on their way to San Francisco on board the Standard Oil Tanker W. S. Miller with the exception of Captain C. I. Holland, Purser Stewart and eight seamen who remained on board to guard a shipment of $2,500,000 in silver bullion.

A dense fog was the cause of both disasters.

Destroyers Wrecked.
The destroyers Chauncey, Woodbury, Fuller, S. P. Lee, Nicholas, Young and Delphy, were all beached within a few minutes of one another, according to naval officers. The flotilla of which the wrecked craft formed a part was in command of Captain Edward Watson, commanding officer of the Delphy, and was on a practice cruise.

DAILY'S $5,000 PRIZE LIST ATTRACTS GREAT ATTENTION

Handsome Automobiles Great Inducement And Numerous Entries Are In Manager's Hands—Now Is The Time To Decide To Get Busy And Start Work—Rich Rewards Waiting Here

If the interest already displayed in the great circulation campaign just announced by The Decatur Daily is any criterion, then this campaign will go down in history as a monument of gift-enterprises for newspaper work in this section.

Just one day has elapsed since The Decatur Daily announced to the public that it would give away November 17, without cost to the participants, over Five Thousand Dollars in valuable prizes. This amount is divided into fifteen prizes of stated value. The complete list is on another page of this issue of The Daily.

It will be seen that the first three regular prizes, provided they comply with all the rules as published herewith. This commission feature alone will supply many people with extra money, and at the same time permit them to detain their regular position in case they may be working part of the day.

Since the first announcement of the campaign, and do not win one of

Red Cross Rushes Relief To Japan

The American Red Cross has adopted immediate means for rushing relief to stricken Japan. Mr. Knowlton Mixer, chairman of the Manila chapter of the Red Cross, has been cabled to buy all available supplies in the Philippines, charter whatever vessels he needs and rush them at top speed to Yokohama and Tokio.

PARTIAL ECLIPSE IS SEEN HERE

The heralded eclipse of the sun due to the moon passing between the earth and the sun was not expected to make much impression here, although a number had their smoked glass ready for the wonderful sight.

Reports show the eclipse is to be only partial here and due to be at its height locally at 2:30.

Astronomers are especially interested in the present eclipse of the sun, as they desire to observe the "corona" the bright halo about the sun visible only when that heavenly body is in eclipse.

Today's total eclipse of the sun is to be visible most largely at sea, and wonderful stories of the darkness caused on ocean vessels in the south Pacific ocean may be expected in a day or so.

Powerful telescopes have been placed on the Cataline Islands where astronomers expect to gain much interesting information concerning the sun and its surroundings. In Southern California and in Northern Mexico, the eclipse of the sun is expected to be total. In this section of the country much will depend upon the amount of clouds in the sky when the moon passes across the path of the sun. The last eclipse of the sun in this section was June 8, 1918. On January 14, 1925, another eclipse of the sun is promised by the astronomers.

LEGAL STATUS OF MERGER WEIGHED

Defense Wins Early Skirmish In Verbal Attack

CALLAHAN BEGINS FINAL ARGUMENT

Demurrers Take The Stand On Six Grounds

Attorneys in the quo warrants proceedings, brought in the name of the State of Alabama, Gus Hammett, et al began final arguments early this afternoon, W. W. Callahan opening for the defense.

The arguments probably will require the greater part of the afternoon.

The defense won the first legal skirmish of the day when Judge Horton upheld paragraph three of the demurrers that denies the relations between that they were citizens of Decatur and by virtue of that admission did not show intent, or injury, by alleged usurpation of the office by the commissioners.

The plaintiffs were given until 10 o'clock to file their answer.

Court opened this morning shortly after 8:30. Judge Joel B. Horton, W. Godbey and Tommie Watson appeared at the counsel table for the relators and Eyster and Brown for Callahan and Harris appeared for the defense. A few minutes after court opened, Senator Melvin Harris, who is city attorney of the consolidated city, appeared at the defense table.

A small crowd was in the court room at the time, but the room gradually filled as the morning wore on. Judge Horton asked if the defense was ready with an answer to the proceedings brought in the name of the State of Alabama, Gus Hammett and others. Mr. Harris replied that it was.

Charles H. Eyster filed the commission's demurrers and Judge Horton told jurors they might retire until 10:30 o'clock.

Six Grounds.

The demurrers attacked the bill of complaint on six grounds, namely:

1. That the complaint fails to concisely and clearly set forth in what manner the offices of the board of aldermen were usurped.
2. That the bill alleges conclusions of law and fact as constituting alleged offense and fails to allege specifically how or wherein.
3. That relators fail to allege they are citizens of Decatur.
4. That the bill fails to show injury of respondents.
5. That the bill states conclusions of law.
6. That the bill is inconsistent in that paragraph two admits offices exist and paragraph three alleges "pretended rights."

Paragraph three furnished the principal battleground of the early legal skirmishing. Mr. Eyster opened the oral engagement, attacking the complaint on the ground set forth in the demurrers. He laid particular stress on paragraph three of the defense answer.

Judge Brown opened the plaintiff's answer, declaring that any citizen may file a complaint similar to the one brought in the present proceedings, in behalf of the state. His contention was that the board usurped the power vested in other agencies by city charters and that for that reason the state is interested. The people came into court in the name of the state, he pointed out.

Mr. Godbey also explained the position of the plaintiff, declaring the proceedings were brought as remedial measures and he quoted authorities in support of the position that it was not necessary for the relators to show interest.

Mr. Brown also read a case or two in support of the point.

Following the skirmish of attorneys, Judge Horton declared the court

WE FAVOR ACCEPTANCE OF HENRY FORD'S BID FOR MUSCLE SHOALS.

The G. O. P. elephant is about to prove a white elephant to the American people.

Our heads cannot be with all, but our hearts can be with all.

Some talk about Ford trading his Presidential aspirations for Muscle Shoals, and it does not sound good either.

Does anybody believe the big battleships would ever have been scrapped if it had not been for the danger to them from the aircraft?

It has bethought the Greeks to break off commercial relations with Italy. In other words to quit trading with them.

THE ITALIAN CITES AMERICA TO HIS ADVANTAGE.

An interview credited to Mussolini, the Italian man of blood and iron who caused an army to land on Greek territory before the Greeks had time to make amends or explain acts charged to their government, defends his actions and cites some recent American history, in an attempt to justify the warlike deeds.

The Italian says he did but as President Wilson acted when Mr. Wilson ordered that Vera Cruz be taken following the Tampico incident. Mussolini refers also to the American expedition sent into Mexico in an effort to seek out and punish Pancho Villa. He says that his action against the Greeks was the same in kind as that of President Wilson against the Mexicans.

Those who are familiar with the patience and long suffering exercised by Mr. Wilson and who recall the abuse heaped upon him for not declaring war upon Mexico, will not be impressed with the parallel drawn by Mussolini between his recent actions and those of President Wilson regarding Mexico.

The interview of the Italian plainly showed he was on the defensive—that is important, and he will be kept on the defensive for some time to come.

HOPE SPRINGS ETERNAL FOR THE SUCCESS OF THE FORD BID.

Writers on the possibility and probability of Henry Ford getting Muscle Shoals are numerous. Almost everybody who has ever written anything has said something about the Ford bid, and almost all Americans who are able to talk have had their say and said it concerning the Ford bid. Speculation as to Ford's chances are still written, but seldom read by busy people. Many are sick and tired of the arguments—true they be—as to why Mr. Ford should have the Shoals. All know he has made the only bid worth while and that ought to be enough said about the whole Muscle Shoals proposition, until the project is done and fulfilling its mission to humanity.

President Coolidge has said nothing in so many words as to what he thought about the Ford-Muscle Shoals proposition, but he has done a very significant thing. He has sent for the Detroit man within a short time after he became the President.

It is unthinkable that Coolidge sent for Ford for any than the most business like reasons. It is sure Coolidge caused some sort of a proposition to be submitted to Mr. Ford in connection with Muscle Shoals, and it is also sure that the proposals of the President were reasonable ones or else Henry Ford would not have taken them under advisement. Something is going to happen this time. Either Ford's final offer will be accepted or else it will be rejected. In all probability the Republican administration's mind is made up as to what it proposes to do about the Ford offer.

time—if he follows his usual mental processes, then we shall know "in reason" what will become of the great Shoals project.

We will know "in reason" the fate of the Shoals following the reply of Mr. Ford, to the proposals made him at Washington, but we will not know "in fact" what will be done about them until what we call our national assembly—the house of Representatives and the United States Senate—take a formal vote during this winter.

In case the two houses of Congress approve the Ford bid, in all probability Mr. Coolidge will ratify the action, especially if he follows out the policies of the late President, for it is known that Mr. Harding, before his death, promised to sign a proFord measure as touching the disposition of the Shoals, should such a measure be approved by the Washington solons.

Another hopeful phase of the situation for those who wish the Ford offer accepted, is renewed activity on the part of the proponents of the Ford bid. A new club, called the "Detroit Club," has recently been formed, which is putting heart, money and brains into the proFord campaign.

It is noticeable that of late opponents of the Ford bid are banking on a back-down on the part of the Detroiters; but Mr. Ford is not regarded as a quitter or as a deceiver by very many people. Other opponents of the bid say I will have "opposition in the Senate," but the Senate's opposition will be brushed aside, if Mr. Coolidge and the House of Representatives are staunch and true for the Ford bid.

CO-OPERATION MAN'S GREAT NEED.

There is no limit to the things that can be said in favor of co-operation. In the last analysis co-operation means construction while its opposite means destruction.

Wherever man has co-operated with nature his interests have been advanced immeasurably. If he gets his seeds into the ground before the early rains and gets the land in which they are growing well cleansed and cultivated before the latter rains come—barring evil creatures—the farmer will have good crops.

If a builder places the foundation stones of his structure low enough, and upon the solid rocks below, the winds may come and beat upon that house but it will stand.

If the student acquaints himself with enough of the secrets of nature, he can always get all he needs out of nature's store house.

Just as men must work with nature and not against nature to succeed, so must men work with each other and not against each other if they succeed.

There is a law in man's being which demands co-operation, and it cannot be disregarded with impunity. It is as impossible for men or communities to prevent failure, if they strike against the common good, as it would have been to prevent the destruction of the Titanic after it had struck that great iceberg near New Foundland.

There are times when nature, so to speak, will not co-operate. Despite the skill of the builders at Tokio, the mighty forces of nature shook his buildings to the earth and the fires of nature consumed the food and the substance of the people of Tokio. It seems that nature or some power is beyond man's control in the cotton fields this fall, and that certain creatures of nature are preventing co-operation between nature and the cotton farmers.

As regards nature, man cannot always establish the relations he would like to establish. But as regards man and man, as regards men and men, they can always co-operate—the can always do things by co-operation if they wish to and will take the trouble to train themselves to do team work.

Only one simple but important law must be observed in all the co-operative schemes as between man and man, right relations must be established and maintained.

Men will not work together except along peaceful lines and toward worthy ends. Men must be reasonably good to each other if they co-operate. "What friendship is able to exist among those who are evil?" Man's part in the great game of co-operation must be generous, not just self-seeking of the general good; man's part must be honest and above board and just, to the last farthing.

Until man is ready and willing to meet all the conditions of co-operation, he cannot co-operate, he cannot live in accord with the law of his own or the law of the being of his fellowmen.

But once all conditions are met, men co-operating together can be successful under the most adverse conditions. Who knows but what adverse, almost uncontrollable conditions are allowed, in the effort of Providence to teach men the need and necessity of co-operation.

Daily's $5,000 Prize List Attracts Attention

this campaign, a great many entries have been received by the campaign manager. These entries come from Decatur and Albany and the entire surrounding territory, where The Daily is read.

In a few days the campaign will publish a complete list of the entries received, together with the votes credited to each. This first list will probably appear next Thursday, so if you have been considering entering this campaign it is advisable to do so at once, and secure a good, early start, for the campaign lasts only eight weeks.

You have nothing whatever to lose by entering the campaign. It will not cost you a single penny to enter and win any one of the prizes advertised. The thing for you to decide for yourself is whether you have the ambition to devote your spare time for the next few weeks to winning for yourself one of the finest automobiles on the market today. If you have, then send in your name.

It should be understood at the very beginning that each and every car named is fully equipped in every way and all are 1924 models, the freight and war tax prepaid and go to their owners with the same guarantee of service and performance from the dealer that would be given if the car were bought outright instead of won as will be the case. In addition to the three automobiles, there are thirteen merchandise awards which will be found listed elsewhere.

Now is the time to enter and win, just clip the entry coupon and send or bring it to the Campaign Manager and he will explain every detail to you. Remember this campaign is divided into four periods and as each period closes the votes get smaller, so if you are going to enter this great campaign, do it now. It does not cost you a cent during the whole campaign everything is furnished you free of charge. The Campaign Manager's office is located in The Daily Office and the office hours are from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m.

The vote schedule will be found below for the entire contest and will be changed in no way.

POLLY AND HER PALS

was disposed to hold the information, which also had been attacked, was sufficient but was not disposed to believe that the "person" referred to in the acts read meant a "person" without interest.

For that reason he held the third ground good. Attorneys for the relators then withdrew for a conference, following which the attorneys were given until 10:30 o'clock to submit their answer.

The formal answer of the defense to the quo warranto proceedings proper was filed with the court early today. The answer sets forth allegations briefly as follows:

1. It neither denies nor admits the averments of paragraph 1 of the original bill, but demands specific proof. It admits that James A. Nelson is a resident of Decatur, but denied that W. A. Britain and Charles Sitterson are residents of Albany, but avers they are residents of Decatur. Denial is made the commissioners usurped the offices they hold and denial is made the offices are held unlawfully. The answer alleges they hold such positions lawfully and are authorized by law. Denial is made they are excluding any one from acting as commissioners.

3. The answer denies the commissioners are acting with pretended authority.

The answer sets forth further that the cities of Albany and Decatur were consolidated by the legislature on August 28 and cite as authority that act of the legislature.

Shortly after 11 o'clock, Judge Brown began an argument on behalf of the plaintiffs, attacking the constitutionality of the proceedings providing for the merger of the two cities, contending that the series of five bills was unconstitutional and invalid. Thirty three separate grounds were found by the plaintiffs for attacking the measure according to demurrers prepared by the plaintiffs. The grounds briefly were:

1. Said act is unconstitutional and void.
2. That the charter powers of the city of 6,000 or over are more extensive than, and different, from those of a city of under 6,000.
3. The act is void because the only alteration includes the city of Albany which is provided for by general law and offends section 105 of the constitution.

4. Because the act to vacate Albany's charter is not to be effective until approval of the act to enlarge Decatur and therefore is function of office.

5. Because the act to create a board of education and board of commissioners is in short incorporation of a city, and violative of sub-section 5 of section 104 of the constitution.

6. Because effect of said acts extends charter of Decatur over territory embracing taxable property to the value of $5,000,000 and including 7,500 people, violating the constitution.

7. Extends charter powers of Decatur to levy a special tax on all property of Albany for purpose of improvements, whereas constitution prohibits levy upon property in Albany.

8. Violates section 45 of constitution, requiring each law shall contain but one subject, which must be clearly expressed in title.

9. Because act does not state in title purpose of annexation of Albany.

10. Because act sets forth purpose to rearrange boundary lines, whereas all boundary lines not rearranged.

11. Because only one boundary line changed, whereas subject stated purpose to rearrange boundary lines.

12. Because act shows in body purpose to consolidate contiguous city, which is violative of section 45 of constitution.

13. Violates section 45 in that body of acts shows purpose to annex contiguous city.

14. Violates section 45 in that body of act shows purpose to annex contiguous territory.

15. The attack in this paragraph is divided into several sections. It declares the court judicially knows the population of Albany to be 7,500 according to the census and that of Decatur less than 6,000 and continues:

is no intimation of a purpose to consolidate or annex or the territory of the city of Albany.

(B) That it violates the constitution in that it creates a new charter of Decatur.

(C) Violates constitution by extending charter of Decatur.

(D) Offends constitution in that there is general law providing for consolidation of contiguous cities.

(E) Offends constitution because there is general law whereby cities of Albany and Decatur could have been consolidated.

(F) That the acts were not published four consecutive weeks as required by law.

(G) Not enacted in manner and form prescribed by constitution.

(H) Permits Decatur to levy special tax prohibited by Albany.

16. Because said act is violative of Section 45 of constitution in that subject of said act is not clearly expressed in title.

17. Because act contains no intimation that purpose is to include territory covered by city of Albany.

18. Because act is violative of sub-section 29 of section 104 of constitution in that it changes or rearranges boundaries of wards of Decatur.

19. Because said act is violative of section 28 of constitution in undertaking to change or alter boundary lines of wards of Albany.

20. Because act does not show by title its purpose to create board of commissioners.

21. Because no intimation in said act that purpose was to create a form of government over territory embraced in the city of Albany.

22. Because legislature had no authority to name officers of municipal corporation.

23. Unconstitutional in that it incorporates city of Decatur.

24. Unconstitutional by creating new charter for Decatur.

25. Unconstitutional by extending Decatur charter over territory embraced in Albany.

26. Title of commission misleading.
27. Said title indicates temporary commission, yet prescribed term of office for longer period than the municipal board under the general law.

28. Commission acts violates constitution, general law providing for such cases.

29. Unconstitutional in that it undertakes to supplant boards of aldermen otherwise than by judicial proceedings.

30. Commission act violates constitution by attempting to remove aldermen of Decatur before terms expire.

31. Because appears that purpose of acts are to consolidate cities of Albany and Decatur, whereas ample provision is made for such action under general laws.

32. Commission act unconstitutional because suspends general act providing for election on commission form.

33. Undertakes to impose on Decatur liabilities of Albany and confer on Decatur all property rights of Albany.

34. The act creating school board is no legal justification for defendants exercising functions etc., of board of commissioners.

35. That act making Decatur liable for debts of Albany and conferring on it property rights of Albany is no justification for defendants exercising functions, etc., of commissioners.

36. That same constitute the conclusion of the pleader and show no warrant or authority of law by which defendants are exercising the functions and powers of the commissioners.

37. Because the act abolishing the city of Albany had not become effective for the reason that the act to rearrange boundary lines of Decatur is unconstitutional and void.

Judge Brown spoke for some 30 minutes, attacking legally the merger on much the same grounds as set forth in the written answer. He addressed his remarks to the bench only delivering his argument in low tones, well modulated, but clear.

As he recited the grounds of attack he read from a number of authorities supporting his position.

The speaker declared if it were valid for the boundary lines of Decatur to be arranged by legislative action such as in the present merger case, it would be equally as easy for Huntsville, Athens or Tusculumbia to be included in the embraced territory. "Cullman even might be taken in," he remarked with a smile, adding "but we would probably object."

"No more than we would," replied

STATE PLANS OF SOUTHERN BELL ARE UNDER WAY

The following interesting figures compiled by the state officials of the Telephone and Telegraph company regarding improvement in the state for publication today by J. B. Cassels, local manager of the company.

The extensive construction programs which the Bell System has under way in Alabama is making splendid progress, according to State officials of the Southern Bell company.

During the first six months of the year gross additions to the telephone plant, costing more than $362,000 were completed. This consisted largely of improvements and extensions to care for the growth of Alabama.

During the last six months of the year an expenditure of more than $590,000 is planned, making the total for the year more than $952,000.

While most of this investment has been made at local telephone exchanges throughout the state, large sums have been spent on the long distance system and the toll service has been expanded and improved.

The continuing demand for telephone service throughout the state is keeping the telephone workers of Alabama at top speed. During the first six months of the year they installed removed and moved 11,244 telephones with the result that there was a net gain of 2,469 new telephones for this period, which was three-fourths as many new telephones as were added during the entire year 1922.

To make such a gain, it was necessary to install 5,981 new telephones, take out 3,512 and move 1,751 from one location to another.

Telephone officials point to these figures as indicating the enormous amount of work involved in making such a net gain.

The work on the long distance lines in Alabama during the balance of the year will cost approximately $150,000 and will result in the addition of 413 miles of physical circuit and 252 miles of phantom circuit.

The extensive work already completed and under way is expected to relieve the congestion throughout the state and provide amply for the future growth.

"BROOM" IS BROKEN

Some delay was occasioned today to the work of the Danville pike, by an accident to the "broom" or large sweeping machine used in preparing the surface for the asphalt.

Engineer Bingham said that it was expected that the sweeping machine would be ready for use in a day or so, when the surfacing of the pike will begin in earnest.

AIRDOME TONIGHT

The return of the Whiz Bang Follies to the Airdome, with George (Bum) Slocum in an all new show and the same favorites for the remainder of the season is most pleasing to the public. The show is bigger and better, according to report, with the big orchestra and Bettie Garrard, Herman (Cohn) Kimbal to help "Bum" put the big show over. Let "Bum" make you get over your troubles. Admission price same as before.

Attorney Harris. Court reconvened shortly after one o'clock.

Judge Brown announced at opening of court that he had finished his argument.

Mr. Callahan suggested three arguments be given in the time of two if the other side also desires. After short discussion it was decided to permit two attorneys from each side to submit their views.

Mr. Callahan opened for the defense. He declared it was well known, the legislature had the right to "do as it pleases" unless it violates some constitutional provision.

The constitution, section 104 gives 31 cases in which the legislature has no power, he said. He reviewed Judge Brown's argument, replying to the theories advanced by the latter. He denied the organic power of a city has changed by the merger. He said the legislature had authority to abolish any office except those created by the constitution.

HOUSE OF LORDS FEARS FOR WEST INDIAN COLONIES

LONDON—Fear that American influences may eventually affect the relations between England and the British West Indies has invaded Parliament and caused some members of the House of Lords to urge that the government lose no time in strengthening the existing bonds with the British colonies.

Viscount Burnham has urged that special representation at the Imperial Economic Conference be given the West Indies, and that better communication on the sea and under it be established at once with that part of the Empire. He points out that communication at the present time is very bad, a condition that does not obtain with any other part of the Empire.

Almost all of the news supplied to the West Indian papers come from America, and reflects the American point of view.

Jew Is Subject Of Evangelist Hunt

Jew—unto them were committed the oracles of God."

4. To give a Saviour to the world. When the world was in moral darkness and without God, God called Abraham and of him he called a nation and of the nation he called a man, the Christ, and out this man he is calling a holy nation, "the Church of the First Born."

Thus we see the Jews have taught us our God, our government of law and order, our Bible and our Christ, Prophet, Priest, King and Redeemer. The greatest and best and only perfect man was a Jew. No Christian will hate the Jew.

Calamity Predicted.
Their miseries have come upon them as predicted 1500 years before Christ. They have suffered persecution, famine, and have been taken captive but they have not mixed and have not been destroyed. They have been scattered among all the nations.

The four well defined periods of their history of 4900 years each have passed except the "last week" or seven years, which will begin after Christ has taken the church out of the Gentile world. There will be war and desolation until the Prince comes who will be the head of the League of ten Nations. In the midst of this will occur the 3 1/2 years of tribulation foretold by Jeremiah, Daniel and Jesus. The Messiah will come, the Jew will become reconciled, repent and accept the Christ who will be their king and God will take up the work of the Church through Israel. The Jew went into a delusion when they rejected Jesus but their restoration is foretold. All plots to exterminate them have failed. Note the providence of God. They will become apostles to the Gentiles. There will be no peace until the Jew is in control. And the Gentile will not be converted until then. They are being restored to their country through the Zionist movement. If we'd be as faithful as he and be first a Christian and then other things we'd make more progress.

When the Prince is come Israel will claim a national existence for the first time since the crucifixion. "Jacob's trouble" shall begin. This is the last attempt of the Gentile nations to exterminate Israel. The armies of the North (Russia) Zech. 12, shall lay siege to Jerusalem but shall be frightened by an appearance from heaven (Isaiah 2:10-22) and the battle of Armageddon will be fought. Israel will call upon the Lord and He will hear them. They shall look upon Him whom they pierced (Rev. 1:7) and shall be in great mourning until he saves and forgives them. Then with Israel converted, the work which God called Israel to do will be finished and the world will come to know one God, Jehovah, and the Son of God shall reign. Then Eden will sing the song of redemption and the earth will enjoy 1000 years of Millennial peace.

Destroyers Cast On The Pacific Coast

The dead were all trapped in their bunks on the Young when the vessel struck and were drowned when the craft capsized 2 minutes after striking.

More than five hundred men were rescued from the wrecked destroyers which tonight were reported to be pounding to pieces on the rocks.

Of the survivors, 15 of the seriously injured were brought to the Santa Barbara county hospital. One hundred others were cut and bruised in their swim to safety over the jagged rocks. The destroyers were traveling in formation at 20 knots an hour in a heavy sea and dense fog when the leading vessel was wrecked.

Carried ahead by a strong tide, the others piled on the beach in succession laying in line along the shore at intervals of 250 feet, the boats tonight were slowly breaking up. One of them, the Chauncey, was resting on the high rocks.

The seas were running so heavy that it was only a few minutes after the crash that all of the destroyers were taking water.

The rescue of most of the crew of the Young was effected when Boatswain Mate Peterson took a line overboard and swam with it to the Chauncey, fighting against the rough sea and strong tides.

Peterson reached the Chauncey exhausted.

With the line secured between the two ships all remaining members of the crew made their way ashore, as the Chauncey was beached on the mainland.

The Delphy broke up during the night, carrying down with it seaman Pierson, who, blinded by oil, and with broken legs, was lashed to the mast in the hope he would be rescued this morning.

Naval officials arrived on the scene today at noon on the Melville to make arrangements for salvaging the destroyers.

All survivors were reported in good spirits tonight and anxious to know when do we eat as Honda is only a small station on the side of a mountain on the coast and has no facilities for feeding a multitude.

Firm, Plump Flesh!

MANY are the eyes that are turned to gaze with admiration on the well developed, healthy girl no matter where she may be—on the rapidly moving thoroughfare or gliding gracefully over the dance floor.

All eyes turn because we all appreciate the girl with the figure so firm and plump—the girl with radiantly red cheeks, cheeks that carry a touch of roses from nature's own garden—the girl with the sparkling eyes, keen and sharp—the girl with buoyancy and the swing of youth.

Not necessarily an out-of-doors girl. Just a girl with ever increasing blood cells. Just a girl filled with the vim and vigor of youth.

S. S. S., since 1826, has stood for increased blood cells. S. S. S. means restored strength—rekindled vitality—added energy. Take S. S. S. and watch the bloom of youth return to your cheeks. Watch that flabby, ill nourished flesh fade away before flesh that is firm and plump. Red blood cells will do it and S. S. S. will build them. It contains only pure vegetable ingredients. S. S. S. is sold at all good drug stores. The large size bottle is more economical.

Telephone Workers Smashing Construction Records

THE construction program of the Bell System in the State of Alabama for the year 1923 has made such progress, that the gross expenditure for the year will amount to more than $972,000.

During the first six months of the year more than $362,300 was expended for new additions and improvements throughout the State.

Projects costing more than $590,000 will be started or finished during the last half of the year.

Practically all of this is new money secured from people who are willing to invest their funds in the telephone business in Alabama. Most of it was invested at local telephone exchanges throughout the State.

During the six months ending June 30th, the plant forces in Alabama installed, discontinued and moved 11,244 telephones, resulting in a net gain of 2469 new telephone stations. This was three-fourths as many new telephones as were added during the entire year 1922.

To gain 2469 telephones required the installation of 5981 stations, the discontinuance of 3512 stations, while 1751 telephones were moved from one location to another.

This enormous amount of work reflects in a substantial way the rapid growth and progress of the State of Alabama and also represents a splendid accomplishment on the part of the telephone workers of Alabama, even surpassing the remarkable record they made last year.

The extensive new additions are required to serve your present needs and to provide for the future telephone needs of the rapidly growing communities throughout the State.

HOW TO ENTER

Just clip the entry coupon and send it to the campaign manager, P. O. Box 572 and he will bring the necessary supplies and explain the details to you.

HOW TO NOMINATE

Nominations can be made by clipping out the nomination blank, filling in name and address of person whose nomination is desired, and mail or bring it to the Campaign Manager's office, in The Daily office. A better way is to telephone and get details. It is not necessary to a subscriber of THE DAILY in order to become a candidate. Anyone can send in his or her nomination or that of a friend.

As soon as the nomination has been received full particulars will be sent the candidate, including a subscription book, and the candidate should start at once to secure subscriptions to THE DAILY. Both old and new subscriptions give votes.

HOW TO WIN

There are but two ways to secure votes and both are free to you. First, get all of your friends and acquaintances to save the 25 vote coupon that will appear in each issue of THE DAILY; then, second, start getting subscriptions from everyone you may know who are not taking THE DAILY to give you a subscription; the prizes are all awarded on the amount of votes secured, the one having the highest amount of votes will win the First Grand Prize and so on until all of the prizes have been awarded, then the ten per cent cash commission will be paid those who do not win one of the above prizes.

ALL VOTES ARE FREE

All of the prizes listed on this page, will be given away absolutely without cost, to the people who secure the most votes for themselves up to the closing date. There are no strings attached to any of these prizes in any way. All votes are free, and anyone of good reputation may enter and take part. There are two ways of securing votes. One by clipping them from each issue of THE DECATUR DAILY, and by having your friends save them for you too, and by securing paid subscriptions to the DECATUR DAILY. Every contestant is entitled to free supplies, that is receipt books, vote sheets, etc. The contest is a straight business proposition—there are not nor will there be any undesirable features—every one will be treated fairly and squarely. Everyone will have the same opportunity of winning any of the prizes listed on this page. No money or other special influences can in any way effect he winning of any prize. All that you need is the ambition to use your spare time securing votes and subscriptions. If you have the energy, the Big Buick Four Touring, the first prize can be yours.

NOTICE—Contest officially opens September 15th and ends November 17 at 8:00 o'clock. This first week will be known as publicity week although anyone can enter this week, the earlier the better.

USE THREE OF THESE

A CARD

To The Public: Mr. E. P. Wallace, over the telephone has assured me that no visit to Rentz has been made by the Ku Klux Klan since he has had charge of that place and to him full justice I take this means, without any suggestion from him that I write this statement, to say that I certainly must have made an incorrect statement in a sermon because of the report that came to my ears.

I request those who heard me make that statement to assist in giving this correction to any who may mention the matter. I regret that I depended upon the statement of a friend as to what he had heard.

Respectfully,

New York Letter

by Lucy Jeanne Price

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—The League of Nations has been tried and found not wanting right here in New York. Down in Clinton Street, in the very midst of what is called the most crowded mile in the world, is an example that the rest of the globe might emulate. The Clinton street league of nations has its headquarters in the white door settlement at Number 211. It has proved successful because it has learned to disarm the suspicion of its mother members and make them all pull together for the much sought Americanism. The Mothers' club has a German President, an Irish vice-president, an English secretary, a Jewish treasurer and a native sergeant-at-arms. There is nothing significant in the selection but if you will reason it through it does appear to be a logical world at work. Who can keep order better than our own nation, but why go further? The membership of the white door includes, Armenians, English, Irish, Russians, Finns, Jews, Poles, Slovaks, Dutch and Scandinavians, and many more too hard for me to spell or for the type setter to worry with.

It ill behooves Manhattan to look superior at sightseeing buses patronized by visitors. No people on earth can be so easily and quickly stopped in their rush to gaze at an incident of the streets as can the 365-day-a-year New Yorkers. Several thousand persons were victimized by one of the oldest hoaxes in the land the other evening, when they stood for many minutes along Park Row straining their necks to see a "human fly" on the face of the Woolworth building. It all started when two men stopped in front of the Franklin statue, and one grabbed the other's arm, pointing upward. Passerby assumed a "human fly" now forbidden by city ordinance, was climbing up the building. The crowd blocked the street with in three minutes, looking at nothing at all.

The Selwyns will sponsor the Grand Guignol Players for their New York presentation. Many of the leading play wrights of France are represented in the repertory agreed upon. A. DeLorde, H. Bauche, Charles Mere, M. D'Astorg, Pierre Chaine and others. Julia Chandler is the authority sent over to make the selections and if her taste in the American theater is a criterion, we should know the best of one of the greatest play-houses in the world after we have seen her choice.

Not so long ago, when vacant apartments were many and rents were cheap the unwritten law of Manhattan was that white and black could not dwell side by side as neighbors. A shift in everything, especially the housing shortage, has wrought great change in this respect. For the whites that have hung on in the Harlem section, there is an advantage. Rents had from them are from five to twenty-five and sometimes as high as fifty per cent less than the amount received from the colored tenants. There are about 200,000 colored people in New York, and three-fourths of them are quartered within the region between Fifth and Eighth Avenues, reaching from 125th street to 145th street and the Harlem river. Space meant for 100,000 whites is now stretched to hold 150,000 negroes. They are great people to take in lodgers, and perhaps nowhere in the city is there a more shifting population. A tip through this section is interesting beyond account. All the life depicted in the recent colored reviews actually lived and more. On atmosphere of means, good nature, and color, in the broad use of the word, pervades the happiest quarter in town.

Precisely.
